Dear Parents / Guardians

Our 2018-2019 training year is well under way. As part of our formal activities we are hosting a Squadron Mess Dinner. This function is a wonderful opportunity for squadron cadets and staff to meet on a friendly but formal basis to celebrate another successful cadet year. It also enables our commanding officer and invited guest to speak to the cadets as a group. Junior cadets will be introduced to a wonderful Air Force tradition.

Date:	Saturday, April 6, 2019
Location:	Royal Canadian Air Force Officer's Mess 158 Gloucester Street, Ottawa
Cadets arrival at AY:	5:15pm
Bus depart from AY:	5:30pm, if you miss the bus, you are responsible for your own transportation downtown
Departure from Mess:	Approx. 9:45pm ( will post on FB when departing )
Arrival at AY	Approx. 10:15pm
Dress:	Cadet Uniform with white shirt and black bow tie Cadet without uniform: dress pants, white shirt and black bow tie
Cost:	$10 per cadet

Cadets are highly encouraged to participate in this event. We have a special guest speaker for the evening. Parents or guardians requiring additional details may speak with a squadron officer on Wednesday evening. We appreciate your continued support.

Best regards,

Capt Anica Boudreau
Commanding Officer

Mark Vermeer
SSC Chair
